

1
B May 1988, 1 new

Except as provided in Section 203(b) (appearing under the heading 'General Provision--Department of Justice') of the Department of Justice Appropriations Act, 1988 (contained in P.L. 100-202) and in Section 140b of Title 10, United States Code, funds available to an intelligence agency which are not appropriated funds may be obligated or expended for an intelligence or intelligence-related activity only if they are used for activities reported to the appropriate congressional committees pursuant to procedures jointly agreed upon by such committees, the Director of Central Intelligence or the Secretary of Defense, which identify types of activities [that are permitted] for which non-appropriated funds may be expended and under what circumstances an activity must be reported as a significant anticipated intelligence activity before those funds can be expended.